Forecast for Monday 10 Jun 2024

Weather: Occasional showers, snow on higher Munro tops, and a few clear intervals overnight. By morning generally cloudy with further rain or showers, with wet snow on the highest tops. More cloud breaks in the evening as showers become isolated.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 40%, improving 80% later in evening

Low cloud and visibility: Large areas of cloud at 800-1000m with some lower patches in north, cloud becoming more broken later in evening. Visibility away from cloud variable, mainly good in dry spells falling moderate in showers, perhaps poor in heavier showers or summit snow.
